The President's Message
By NCBWA President Shamus McKnight

Membership:

For baseball fans around the country, the start of April is the true harbinger of spring. As the NCAA Basketball Tournaments wrap up and the days get longer, fans across the country turn their attention to the action on the diamond.

The 2008 season has already been one of surprises around the country, showing the parity around the country is alive and well and making this year one of the most competitive in recent memory. The recent announcement of Mississippi State Coach Ron Polk's retirement at the end of the season will leave a void in the sport. The passion and love he showed toward college baseball has been an inspiration for many across the country.

As teams around the country begin the second half of the season, the road to Omaha and the 2008 College World Series could be one of the most exciting in recent memory. One of the stops on the road to Omaha is the All-America teams and the Dick Howser Trophy ceremony prior to the college World Series, and the deadline is fast approaching for nominees for the NCBWA All-America team submission. Please e-mail Bo Carter (bcarter@footballfoundation.com) with your nominees, so we can recognize the many outstanding players around the country.

Mississippi State's Ron Polk, SEC's Winningest Head Coach, Announces Post-2008 Resignation

Mississippi State's Ron Polk, the winningest baseball coach in Southeastern Conference history, has announced he will resign effective at the end of the current season. State has started an immediate national search to replace the coaching legend.

Polk is in his 29th season as head of the M-State baseball program, his 35th as a collegiate head coach and his 40th in all levels of coaching college baseball. He began the season with 1,350 games as a college head coach to rank among the nation's Top 10 all-time winningest coaches, the fifth-most wins among active NCAA Division I baseball coaches. He became the winningest baseball coach in SEC history in 1997.

A native of Boston, Mass., Polk has guided 23 of his previous 34 teams to NCAA regional play, including the last five straight. He has taken eight of those clubs to the College World Series, including six while at State. Polk was twice honored as the National Coach of the Year (1973 and 1985). He has been elected to the American Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame (1985), both the state of Mississippi and the Mississippi

State University Sports Hall of Fame (1988), and the Georgia Southern University Hall of Fame (1990). He also was honored by his peers as the recipient of the ABCA's Lefty Gomez Award.

Milestones

Florida State coaching legend Mike Martin won his 1,500th contest on March 16 as the Seminoles downed Georgia Tech 17-8 ... He is the third coach in NCAA Division I to reach 1,500 wins along with Texas' Augie Garrido and Wichita State's Gene Stephenson ... UCF had a combined no-hitter against Wagner on March 17 in a 6-0 win at Orlando. Mitch Houck and Austin Hudson worked the gem for the Knights, and it was the first combined no-hitter in UCF history. It also was just the second overall UCF no-hitter (Pete MacLaughlan vs. Columbia in 1973)...The win also was coach Jay Bergman's 1,200th career victory. He became the 17th coach in D-I history to reach the mark, and the 21st at all levels of the NCAA ... Missouri became the 35th Division I program to reach 2,000 wins when the Tigers downed Stetson 9-5 on Feb. 24 ... Coach Corky Palmer of Southern Miss gained his 800th career victory on March 25 by downing Ole Miss in a neutral site bout at Pearl, Miss., home of the Class AA Mississippi Braves ... Minnesota State-Mankato head coach Dean Bowyer will retire at the end of the 2008 season – his 35th year as a head coach overall, 32nd at MSU-Mankato – and holding 1,000-plus victories ... Tulane head coach Rick Jones has had his contract extended through the 2015 season.

Where Are They Now?

The NCBWA is starting an occasional feature in the newsletter with "Where Are They Now?" updates on a number of college coaches, student-athletes and programs. This issue's segment features the coaches who guided teams in the final season of the Great Midwest Conference in 1995. The updates include 1995 head coaching assignments and current status. They are Cincinnati – coach Bruce Gordon (retired); Dayton – Mark Schlemmer (radio talk show host); Memphis – Jeff Hopkins (coaching in high school); Saint Louis – Bob Hughes (retired); UAB – Pete Rancont (coaching in Houston Astros' system).

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE BASEBALL WRITERS ASSOCIATION

Founded in 1962, the NCBWA is dedicated to the advancement of college baseball. Membership is open to writers, broadcasters and publicists of the sport. Members receive a directory, newsletter updates and official votes in the Howser Award Player of the Year, Regional Player of the Year and NCBWA All-America voting. The NCBWA also sponsors preseason All-American awards, the Stopper of the Year Award, publication and writing contests. Additionally, the organization maintains a website at www.ncbwa.com. For membership, send annual dues ($20), along with mailing address, phone, fax and e-mail address information to Russell Anderson, NCBWA Associate Executive Director, c/o Conference USA, 5201 No. O'Connor Blvd., Suite 300, Irving, TX 75309.
